COMPANY

Growegy offers a suite of AI-powered business tools designed to help small businesses plan marketing campaigns, create promotional content, build business plans, manage tasks and workflows, all while building their business credit. Customers receive access to a dedicated account manager with monthly consultations and additional agency services as a part of our loyalty benefits program.

HOW TO OPEN AN ACCOUNT

To qualify for a credit-reporting account with Growegy a prospect will need to provide a valid phone number, email address, registered business name, business address, and principal name. In addition to this, Growegy will verify the business EIN for regular business credit reporting, although it is not a prerequisite to opening the account itself.
